A Service of Witness to the Resurrection

James D. Dunbar

February 18, 2014

Prelude

For reflection as we gather: "If we live, we live unto the Lord; and if we die, we die unto the Lord. Whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's" (Romans 14:7-8).

Welcome

Opening Hymn #193 Holy, Holy, Holy

Prayer (Unison)

Eternal God, amid all the changes of life you alone remain the same. Our lives are uncertain, the grass withers, the flowers fade, but your Word stands forever. So our trust is in you, O God. Even in the valley of the shadow of death, you are with us.

We praise you for those dear to us and especially we thank you for Jim Dunbar, whom you have now received into your presence. Help us to believe where we have not seen, trusting you to lead us through our years into your rest. Amen.

Special Music How Great Thou Art

Prayer for Illumination (Unison)

Lord, your love for us is everlasting; you alone can turn the shadow of death into the brightness of the morning light. Help us to turn to you with believing hearts. Speak to us in the promises of Scripture that we may be lifted into the light and peace of your presence. Amen.
